F. Eagle Award Application

1. Complete the Eagle Rank application with the help of the enclosed “How to” sheet and/or your unit Leader. Neatness counts! Use only the newest version of the Eagle Application. This application can be found in your Eagle Scout Project Workbook, from your service center or can be found online at www.nesa.org, and then click on the Eagle Scout Application. The application found on the NESA website is a downloaded file. You can complete and print it in a PDF file for a neat, clean, and easy to read application. You must request a Scoutmaster Conference. Take this application to your Scoutmaster so he can sign the application.
2. Use the supplied “Eagle Rank Application Supplement” to write about your ambitions, leadership skills and future plans. This is your opportunity to tell about yourself and what your interests are. This does not need to be long and drawn out, but should give the board of review a good understanding of who you are.
3. Return the completed Eagle Rank Application to the Life to Eagle Coordinator or troop advancement chairman for review, including your completed Eagle Project packet. After review, the Life to Eagle coordinator will arrange for the TOTALLY completed Eagle Rank Application, Eagle Rank Supplement, (req 6) and the Life to Eagle Packet be sent to the Council Service Center for certification. The Council Service center will forward all the paperwork to the District Advancement Chairman.
4. The District Chairman will contact the Unit Leader to set a Board of Review date.
